Report on Bio Waste Management Camp and Cleaning Activity at Zamin Uthukuli Village

Date: 11th February 2023

Organized by: Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat and NSS, Nallamuthu Gounder Mahalingam College, Pollachi

Objective: Degradable and Non-Biodegradable Trash Awareness and Bio Waste Management

Introduction: Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat, in collaboration with NSS from Nallamuthu Gounder Mahalingam College, Pollachi, organized a comprehensive Bio Waste Management Camp on Tuesday, February 11, 2023. The event aimed to create awareness about degradable and non-biodegradable trash and implement effective waste management practices in Zamin Uthukuli Village.

Activities and Participation: NSS volunteers actively participated in the cleanliness drive conducted in both urban and rural areas of Zamin Uthukuli. The primary focus was on organizing a Bio Waste Management Camp, emphasizing the responsible disposal of degradable and non-biodegradable waste.

Awareness Campaign: Concurrent with the cleanliness drive, an awareness campaign was conducted to educate the community on the importance of maintaining a clean environment. The goal was to instill a sense of responsibility among the residents towards the proper disposal of waste materials.

Bio Waste Management Techniques: The Bio Waste Management Camp included demonstrations and hands-on activities showcasing the formation of biofertilizers through the interaction of microorganisms and earthworms. The emphasis was on non-thermophilic stabilization and the decomposition of organic materials. This interactive session provided valuable insights into sustainable waste management practices.

Program Timeline: The activities commenced in the morning and continued until noon, ensuring thorough coverage of the designated areas. The involvement of NSS volunteers, community members, and the cooperation of the Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat contributed to the success of the program.

Hospitality by Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat: Upon the successful completion of the program, the Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat expressed gratitude by providing tea and snacks to the participating NSS volunteers. This gesture fostered a spirit of collaboration and appreciation for the collective effort in promoting a cleaner and healthier environment.

Conclusion: The Bio Waste Management Camp and Cleaning Activity at Zamin Uthukuli Village exemplify the successful collaboration between Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat and NSS from Nallamuthu Gounder Mahalingam College, Pollachi. The initiative not only addressed immediate cleanliness concerns but also focused on long-term sustainability through awareness and bio waste management education. The active participation of NSS volunteers and the hospitality extended by the Zamin Uthukuli Panchayat signify the positive impact of community-driven initiatives in creating cleaner and more environmentally conscious societies.

Report of the Event

On 19.03.2023, a community-driven initiative organized under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, Ministry of Education, Government of India, took place in the village of Kallipatti, Pollachi. The primary focus of the event was the distribution of dustbin pots to encourage proper waste disposal and recycling. The event also featured insightful talks on plastic recycling, tree planting, and women's rights. Mr. Rajesh Venkadasalam, representing KVR Plastic Pollachi, delivered the presidential address. He emphasized the importance of plastic recycling as a method to reduce environmental pollution, aligning with the objectives of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan and distributed dustbin pots to the community members. The MSW (Master of Social Work) students, who had compiled a beneficiary list, played a crucial role in ensuring the distribution process was organized and systematic. Mr. S. Vignesh Kumar, Assistant Professor of Social Work Department at NGM College, Pollachi, outlined a plan for a plastic collection initiative. The students would collect plastic every 15 days, monitoring and ensuring the active participation of the community over a period of six months, in line with the goals of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan.Mr. Rajesh Venkadasalam and Mr. K.V.K. Thiruvengadam, President of Kallipatti Panchayat, participated in a tree-planting activity, contributing to the environmental aspect of the initiative as part of the sustainable development goals advocated by Unnat Bharat Abhiyan. In the evening, students organized various activities, including games for children. Initially, community participation was low, but the involvement of children sparked interest, resulting in active participation and prize distribution. Mrs. Radhaveni Kanagaraj, District Counselor of Pollachi, delivered a presidential address focusing on women's rights, in line with the inclusive development goals of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan. She emphasized the importance of women in society beyond traditional roles.
