ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

A Nation's growth is in proportion to education and intelligence spread among the masses. Having this historic vision, great Philanthropists Late Sri. S.P. Nalamuthu Gounder and Late Aruthelvar Padmashan Dr. N. Mahalingam, Chairman Sathi Group of Company founded NGM College in the year 1967 with a divine vision and cherished desire to serve the cause of humanity in general and rural masses in particular through education. The Objective has been realized right from the day of inception of the college by providing holistic education and by making the students academically vibrant, socially committed, ethically strong and culturally rich citizens of the Nation.

THEME OF THE SEMINAR

India was under the British rule for about two centuries. The political oppression, economic depression, western education and western laws contributed for the emergence of nationalism in India. Under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi, the National Movement became a mass movement. Like other parts of India, Tamil Nadu also played a major role in the struggle for Independence. Role of Tamil Nadu in the freedom movement was unique. The wave started for independence in northern part of India spread over to the south and inspired many Tamils of whom V.G. Chidambaram Pillai, Subramanya Siva, V.V.S. Iyer, Vanchiswaran, Bharathiyar and Thiru. K. Kumaran were prominent.

The Kongu region consists of the districts of Coimbatore, Tirupur, Erode, Salem (Excluding Attur), Dharmapuri, Namakkal, Karur, Kallakurichi taluk (Tiruchirappalli) and Palani taluk (Dindigul). During the British rule, Kongu region emerged as a centre of freedom struggle. Many freedom fighters in this region were arrested during the struggle and imprisoned in various places in Tamil Nadu. They fought against British imperialism without discrimination among them. Women also played major role in the freedom movement in Kongu Region.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SEMINAR

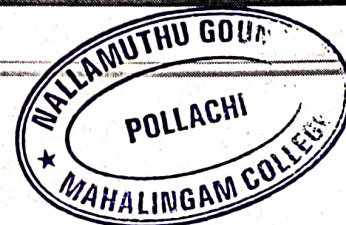

- To make awareness about the events of freedom movement in Tamil Nadu as a whole and Kongu Region in particular.
- To uphold patriotic sentiments in the minds of younger generation.
- To remember the sacrifice undertaken by the freedom movement.
- To highlight the new ideas about the freedom movement.
- To unearth the hidden facts about the freedom movement in this region.
- To encourage the scholars to undertake research on these areas.

RELEVANT TOPICS

- The heroic deeds of Unsung heroes in Kongu Region.
- Freedom movement with reference to Gandhian Era.
- Reprint of Dandi March in Kongu Region.
- Militant Nationalism and Personalities.
- Role of Women in the Struggle for Independence.
- Contribution of Europeans in the Blossom of Independence.
- Active participation of women in the freedom movement.
- Strategies of Polygars in stepping down the alien rule in Tamil Nadu.
