About the Course

Goods and Service Tax (GST) is an indirect tax in India that came into effect on 1st July 2017 which has replaced many indirect taxes. GST is levied on the supply of goods and services and the main advantage is that it has removed the cascading effect on the sale of goods and services.

Also, GST is mainly technologically driven. All the activities like GST registration, GST return filing, application for refund needs to be done online on GST portal.

So, get the basic knowledge on GST and learn about the practical aspects of GST with this GST course.
