Technical Session – I

Technical Session I was handled by Dr.Latha Nair, Professor and Research Guide, Department of English, Amirta Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Kochi Campus on "Implementation of Outcome Based Education: Opportunities and Challenges" through on line mode. She has highlighted the challenges and opportunities in outcome based education. Her session commenced with the ancient system of teaching-learning and how to enable the students to locate their purpose of their life. She has also explained the importance of outcome based thinking and figure out the challenges in implementing the OBE. She also spoke about the art of balancing between innovation and research. She also emphasised on achieving excellence in teaching and learning along with research and engagement.

She stated the importance of Specific benchmarking i.e clear-cut breakup of all pedagogical and assessment procedures. The Benchmarking should be clear to the teachers and students, which would help the teachers to know about the scope of the subject, map out or fix the cognitive performance of the students. The teacher's role is to identify the needs of the community and the country as a whole before drafting the curriculum. It must be integrated into the curriculum, in order to mitigate the disparity of standards. The greatest challenge for the teacher is to document and validate the learner's potential.

'Divya Drishti' means the intuitive perception achieved by yogis, that enables them to see the past and future which would be applicable in the academics to connect the learning outcomes to the needs of society. She also mentioned that students should have the opportunity to track their "Ikigai" - a Japanese word (reason for living) so that they could be aware of their obligations, to make important decisions in their life. Research outputs are a good example of implementing OBE.

She concluded by stating that Subject based benchmarking plays a pivotal role. It improves the quality of the classroom process which curtails the wide spread disparity of academic standards across institutions.

The Department of Computer Applications (BCA) organised a two-day workshop on "Classroom to Career: Developing Employability Skills" on 28th and 29th March 2023. The workshop was held in Prof. Alkondan Hall, and it aimed to provide students with the necessary skills and knowledge to succeed in the workforce. Two hundred and ninety seven students took part in the workshop.

The workshop featured a renowned expert in training students, Mr. P. Anjesh, who is a buyer communicator for many export companies throughout India. Mr. Anjesh has been a keynote speaker, chief guest, and resource person to more than 200 educational institutions across India. His training session proved to be highly impactful, particularly due to the inclusion of activities such as Extemporaneous speech, listening practice, and mock interviews. The students were thoroughly engaged in these activities and found them to be insightful, as they were able to gain a deeper understanding of employability skills. Consequently, the workshop equipped the students with valuable insights and skills that will be beneficial to their future careers.

About the Workshop

As the digital culture is taking its shape it is high time that we should adopt new ways to perform marketing activities. Digital Marketing is the perfect solution for such activities. With the perfect tools and platforms, we can execute your marketing activities digitally. Digital marketing is not always about doing things "Digitally", because the users who are using those digital platforms are not robots, they are humans. And as a marketer, need to keep your focus on the "human" side of digital activities too. And this is where we emphasize more. Digital marketing was just a fresh and different form of marketing at one point. But the value of digital marketing has drastically increased in the last couple of years. 49% of users say they use Google to discover a new thing or product or to locate it. To understand this Digital marketing thoroughly, through the workshop that will let perform those digital marketing activities with a practical approach. The workshop focus on different aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Conversion of the research/project works into Patents and Hands-on-Training on patent searches for Innovations. The aim is to train the participants about the mechanism of accessing and using IPR information for further research and development in developing new products and process and for their use in business development. Also suggest steps for transforming innovations into proprietary assets through this workshop.
