The following are some of the feedbacks given by the students who participated in this fair.

"I am happy to be a part of NGM TRADE CENTRE It gave me an opportunity to explore innovative ideas, It helped me to maintain cordial relationship with other departments. It facilitated me to develop entrepreneurial skills. I gained practical knowledge about the business. I had a live experience in managing finance. Students gave their full co-operation in visiting the stalls. This experience enabled me to look at a business, in entrepreneur perspective and all the activities that are to be taken care of."

M.Anisha Begum B.Com (PA)

We are able to know about the marketing strategy as practical experience and able to know what a customer expects from us. While carrying on own business by ourselves as a sole trader it was very useful and we gained up practical experience about methods to earn profit. It was very useful for us to develop as an entrepreneur."

"Our NGM TRADE CENTRE gave us new experience. It was very useful for us and we came to know about trade and also we learned how to handle customers and about bargaining. While studying we earned money at the same time and we are happy about it. This was the first time we are earning money by selling a product. We enjoyed a lot. We learned how to create demand among customers. We got many ideas for marketing and tricky ways to sell the products. Apart from studies we learned more. Thanks for giving this wonderful opportunity."

Trisha, Shubaharini - Msc Chemistry

“EARN WHILE YOU LEARN”

Objective:

- Financial Support: To provide students with an opportunity to earn money while pursuing their education. This program aims to alleviate the financial burden on students by offering part-time employment within the library.
- Practical Experience: To offer students practical work experience within a library environment. By working in the library, students can gain valuable skills, knowledge, and insights into library operations, including cataloging, customer service, research assistance, and information management.
- Skill Development: To enhance students' skills and competencies through hands-on experience. Working in the library setting can help students develop important transferable skills such as communication, organization, problem-solving, teamwork, and adaptability.
- Work-Life Balance: To promote a healthy work-life balance for students. The "Earn While You Learn" program in the library allows students to balance their academic responsibilities with part-time employment, enabling them to earn an income while still focusing on their studies.

Context:

Our college is located in a rural area, and the majority of the local population belongs to middle-class families. Considering this, our college implemented the Earn and Learn Scheme in 2015, which allows students to earn while they learn. Enrolled students dedicate some hours after college as working hours, enabling them to easily pay their fees. Additionally, these students have the opportunity to earn an additional amount by working extra hours. The primary task assigned under the Earn and Learn Scheme is library work.

The Earn and Learn Scheme was initially started informally in the early years of the college with the basic aim of generating interest among students towards employment and providing them with financial empowerment. In this system, students assist the library staff in maintaining records.

By participating in this scheme, students gain firsthand experience and knowledge of the aforementioned tasks. It helps them gain valuable experience in the library system and also allows the institution to establish a good rapport with them. Moreover, participants may choose to pursue a career in the field of Library and Information Science.

Overall, the Earn and Learn Scheme at our college serves the dual purpose of providing financial support to students and fostering their interest in employment, while also benefiting the college and its library through the valuable contributions of the participants
