About the seminar

One of the most meaningful and famous quotes by the Former Prime Minster Smt.Indira Gandhi for Women Empowerment is "To Be Liberalized, Women must be Free to be themselves in the context of their capacity and personality. Any society cannot progress if half of its members, the women, do not have equal opportunities and their talents and capabilities are ignored." The changing economic and social conditions in the society due to forces of globalization present new challenges and opportunities for women. Due to the upliftment of educational facilities, women are seeking money – spinning employment in several fields with increasing awareness. Women are inflowing into entrepreneurship even while facing social – cultural, economic, technical, financial and managerial difficulties.

Women entrepreneurship movement can give drive by providing inspiration, appropriate consciousness, exercise, environment and provision. This would boost their socio-economic status, a prerequisite for women's empowerment. In this context, the National Seminar on "Women's Employment, Entrepreneurship and Empowerment" focus on the following sub-themes:

- Women empowerment in India and its importance
- Women empowerment principles
- Women empowerment through education
- Women empowerment through skill development
- Sector -wise women empowerment through employability/ entrepreneurshipIn India
