

FEEDBACK ON ALUMNI

They feel gratified to be a faction of this reputed institute, Nallamuthu Gounder mahalingam college, which provides various foundation to learn about how to face life and overcome various problems or difficulties that arise and achieve or reach what they want to be in future. They showed their gratitude to the management, principal, staff member for their academic ambiance fostered in this institute.

Guest lectures, workshops, conference, seminars on various topic relevant to their course have been conducted by inviting various resource person from different fields motivates them to work towards their goals. They expressed their delight in spending their environment.

They feel that intuitive ability are provided to the rural brought up students to upgrade their knowledge towards personal development mostly the alumni expressed their fulfilment of desire in quality of education and usefulness which has a significant influence in their professional career.

for
✓

FEEDBACK FROM EMPLOYERS

They alumnis and students of our department works in various concerns in different cities. The feedback collected about curriculum from their employers shows their full satisfaction and their feedback say, Regular changes on proper interval according to present stenario, like GST, E-commerce, E-banking are positively commended. Also they said that the practical exposures on various fields like banking company, IT form filling, case analysis, assist the students in proper decision making and working.

Employers are very much satisfied by the institutional training which develops the entrepreneurial skills.

for
D. W.

FEED BACK OF PARENTS

Parents feel that NGMC have long standing academic excellence with experienced and delegated teaching faculty members to enrich their children's. Our institution provides quality education along with ethical values which makes their son/ daughter to be a good citizen to our societies. They are satisfied with the infrastructure facilities like library, canteen, sports, lobby etc., the parents suggest that the institution should concentrate more on placement and should enable mobile communication system about students to parents. The overall performance of the college was satisfied.

for d