

Higher Education Options for +2 Students

Symposium on Higher Education options for +2 Students was conducted on 26th March 2014, to create awareness among the +2 completed students of the Pollachi region. Since this region has agricultural labour community students more number. This symposium focused on the various options for higher studies after completing +2 Examinations and also the future career of the Students Community.