

International Day of Tribal People Culture

In view of International Day of Tribal People Culture, we have organised symposium to focus the culture of the Tribal People on 9th August 2016. Around 300 tribal people of various tribal settlements of Western Ghats region participated and they exhibited their traditional culture and the concern on preserving the nature.