Students Attendance in Online Classes:

The following are the attendance details of the students in the online classes handled from 1st September 2020 to 19th September 2020. The classes are handled through Google Meet. Students attend the classes via smart phone and invariably due to data consumption; some could not attend all the classes. In the III UG out of 45, there are 3 students who are not attending the classes due to some technical clutches. In the II UG out of 48, there are 4 long absentees, 3 students are not attending the classes due to tower issue. The class for the I UG is commenced from 7th September 2020 after the bridge courses. The I UG student's attendance is comparatively low as they are new to these online classes. On the whole, the staff members try to cater the attention of all the students through online classes. From 21st September the online classes are cancelled as the online semester exams for the passing out students took place till 30th September 2020
