2. Report of the Event

Extension Activity on “Awareness programme on World Health Day”

This is an Extension provides awareness about Health and Nutrition among school children. Being healthy is extremely important to maintain a well balanced self. First off, educating kids about good nutrition from an early age helps them create and maintain a well balanced, healthy life. Nutrition at an early age also helps minimize the health concerns that are associated with a poor diet. Making these smart healthy choices everyday is very important to stay well, healthy, and happy.
