

FELICITATION FUNCTION TO SUPREME COURT JUSTICE

Pollachi Advocate Association and NGM College jointly organized felicitation function to Supreme Court Justice K. V. Viswanathan on 3rd June 2023. President of the College Dr. B. K. Krishnaraj Vanavarayar presided over the function and honoured Justice K. V. Viswanathan.

Dr. B. K. Krishnaraj Vanavarayar, President of College delivering Presidential Address

President's figurative speech made the programme thought provoking. He recalled his days as an advocate and his relationship with his senior advocate Mr. Govindaswaminathan, the great legend. He highlighted the importance of hard work to achieve great heights. He expressed his view that the people like Supreme Court Justice K.V. Viswanathan substantiate Swami Vivekananda's optimistic notion that the mankind is capable of making everything possible. He proudly expressed his pleasure to witness Justice K. V. Viswanathan, a person from Pollachi region becoming Supreme Court Justice. He emphasised the importance of education to attain the highest level of dignity. He stated that the desire to make a literate society enabled Arutchelvar to establish 35 Educational Institutions. He continued his speech on the importance of education and NGM's mission to create an intellectual society. He expressed his pleasure to witness the caliber of NGM students to get selected by the reputed Industries despite their rural background. He inspired the gatherings by quoting the words of Arutchelvar, "Give the best possible education; No matter whether he is from city or village, whether he knows English or Tamil; He will scale great heights".

Supreme Court Justice K.V. Viswanathan in his speech proudly stated that he was very happy to have his felicitation function at NGM. He said that Arutchelvar, an Iconic Philanthropist made a significant contribution to elevate Pollachi to the International arena by imparting education to the people of Pollachi. He affectionately called Arutchelvar 'The father of Pollachi' since he was the kingpin in educating and making the people of Pollachi intellectually and economically sound. Besides, he added that Arutchelvar bestowed Viswanathan Anand, Chess Champion of India with the title 'Grandmaster' in 1987. His Institutions and Industries nurtured his vision to improve employability and economy of this region. Supreme Court Justice extended his speech to express his sincere gratitude to his teacher who played a key role in his success. He inspired the junior advocates of this region to reach highest level in their profession with abundant responsibility. Office bearer of advocate association E.N.Dorai, K.S.Ganesh, Judiciary Officers, from Pollachi & Coimbatore, Members of advocates association, Sub-Collector, ASP, Principal, Professors and other representatives of various associations of Pollachi participated and graced the function.

President Honouring the Supreme Court Justice with Memento