

Dr. M. RAMALINGAM studied his PUC in NGM College during the period 1970 – 71. He received his MBBS and M.S(General Surgery) from Coimbatore Medical College in the year 1976 and 1986 respectively. Then he went on to complete his M.Ch. (Urology) at Madras Medical College in the year 1991 and is currently a Professor of Urology at PSG Institute of Medical Science and Research, Coimbatore. Previously, he had served as a Consultant Urologist in KG Hospital and Post Graduate institute and currently as an honorary consultant urologist at GKNM Hospital, Coimbatore. He has been honored with many awards like Vocational Excellence Award from Rotary International, Rashtriya Gaurav Award, FRCS award (Edinburgh), URO-TAN Gold medal and so on. He has authored many books and book chapters. He has presented many Research papers in various International Conferences held in countries like UK, Germany, Italy, China, Japan, South Africa, Singapore, Taiwan, Malaysia, and India and so on. He has acted as a Guest Faculty and delivered many Guest Lectures in both India and abroad. Added to his glory, he is presently a Managing Trustee of M.C. Foundation and Charity which helps poor students regarding their education.